

South Norfolk Council Public Health Funerals - Public Health (Control of Disease) Act 1984

This Online Register for South Norfolk Council is available to members of the Public with record of funeral undertaken by this authority. Details of these funeral arrangements are not published in the obituaries section or public notice sections of any newspaper. The Council have a duty to within reason locate close family and recover the cost of making the funeral arrangements where possible, but do not deal with the deceased's estates or have an arrangement with any geneology company to seek relatives.
