

Some of the datasets used in the production of the Broadland District Council Development Management DPD (adopted 2015) have been produced by third parties. Please see below for a list of datasets with links to external websites from which the GIS data can be obtained.

Ancient Monuments – This data can be obtained from the Historic England website.

Ancient Woodlands - This data can be obtained from the Natural England website.

Commons and Village Greens – This data can be obtained from the Norfolk County Council website.

County Wildlife Sites and County Geodiversity Sites – This data can be obtained from the Norfolk Biodiversity Information Service.

Local Nature Reserves - This data can be obtained from the Natural England website.

National Nature Reserves - This data can be obtained from the Natural England website.

Ramsar Sites - This data can be obtained from the Natural England website.

Registered Parks and Gardens - This data can be obtained from the Historic England website.

Sites of Special Scientific Interest - This data can be obtained from the Natural England website

Special Areas of Conservation - This data can be obtained from the Natural England website.

Special Protection Areas - This data can be obtained from the Natural England website.

Two Councils
One Team

